Skelton Welcomes New Members to Committee

WASHINGTON D.C.—Representative Ike Skelton (MO), Ranking Member, announces five new members of the House Armed Services Committee.

“I am pleased to welcome the following Democratic members who have been named to serve on the House Armed Services Committee during the 109th Congress:

Representative Robert Andrews (NJ)
Representative Mark Udall (CO)
Representative G.K. Butterfield (NC)
Representative Cynthia McKinney (GA)
Representative Dan Boren (OK)

“The Committee roster includes new Members of Congress as well as a few long-time friends who are returning to the panel. With the completion of our Committee organization, I am confident that the members of the House Armed Services Committee will renew our commitment to promoting U.S. national security while providing the protection and support we owe to our service members and their families.”
